E. A. BARRETT ...S DESPONDENT; ...ATE FINDS BODY

Mrs. E. A. Barrett, 55, who with her husband lived with their daughter, Mrs., Mrs. Theodore N. Bates, 127 Warren avenue, committed suicide early this morning by plunging into the east branch of the river.

Mrs. Barrett, four years ago, had a nervous breakdown and has never been well since, suffering with fits of depression. This morning when her husband arose he found her gone and at once gave the alarm. The police were called and they made a search of the woods and fields near the home. Mr. Barrett remembered that she had spoken of ending her life in the river so he went down the bank just below the East Broad street bridge, and the first hting he saw was her body caught in the roots of a tree. He summoned help and she was taken from the water to Sudro's funeral home.

Mr. Barrett stated that yesterday she was better than she had been for some time, and that they planned to visit a daughter in Mansfield today.

She is survived by her husband, an employee of the Willys-Overland plant, her daughter, Mrs. Bates, a son Dennis, of West Bridge street, and a daughter, Mrs. Rexford Heston, of Mansfield.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, but burial will probably take place at Oiena, O., her former home.

HOUSE OF DAVID SUSPECT IS HELD IN OHIO

MARYSVILLE, April 30.—Pending arrival this afternoon of Michigan officials, a man, suspected of being "King" Benjamin Purnell, head of the House of David religious cult colony, Benton Harbor, Mich., is being held in the county jail here.

The prisoner, who refuses to talk or say who he is, tallies closely to the description of "King" Benjamin, local officials declared. He is five feet, six inches tall, weighs about 163 pounds, has a long beard and appears to be very intelligent.

He came here about two months ago in an auto bearing a Kentucky license, and has been making a living by sharpening razors, scissors and knives. He had been sleeping at night in his machine which was parked alongside the state armory here. He is of a very quiet disposition and has made very few acquaintences here.

Promptly upon his arrest here Sunday, Grand Rapids, Mich. authorities were notified. The prisoner refused to give his name. When asked whether he is Purnell, he replied that he is "just a man" and that he is "not the man the authorities want," although admitting that he had been a member of the House of David colony.

LANSING, Mich., April 30.—Even if the bearded man held at Marysville, Ohio, should be identified as "King" Benjamin Purnell, it would mean nothing, as there is no charge against him, Attorney General Andrew B. Dougherty, of Michigan said today.

BOOZE TOTERS FINED

LORAIN, April 30.—Flora Miraldi, John and Jim Miraldi were before Federal court Saturday on liquor charges. She was given ninety days at Warrensville, John Miraldi was fined $100 and costs and Jim Miraldi $200 and costs.

DOCTORS TO CONVENE

DAYTON, April 30.—Physicians and surgeons from all parts of Ohio are expected to gather here tomorrow to attend the 77th annual meeting of the Ohio state medical association, which opens Tuesday morning and closes Thursday afternoon.

19 DROWNED IN STORMS ON OCEAN

Eight Vessels Are Wrecked — Captain, Wife and Nine of Crew on One and Seven Members of Crew on Another Ship Perish

LONDON, Aprli 30.—Word was received here today that the schooner Amy Turner had foundered near Guam with the loss of Captain Nelson, his wife and nine members of the crew. Three other members of the crew were picked up after drifting for 23 days in an open boat.

BOSTON, Mass., April 30.—A storm which for fifteen hours ravaged the New England coast, took a toll of nine lives and wrecked at least seven vessels, it was apparent today. Seven members of the crew of the Boston steam collier Seaconnet were lost when that vessel foundered a mile from the Vineyard Sound lightship. Twenty-two other persons aboard, including the wife of the wireless operator, reached the lightship in lifeboats.

Rum Ship is Victim.

The negro cook of the rum laden British steam yacht Thelma Phoebe lost his life when he became panic stricken and leaped overboard with a mattress as the vessel struck on Fisher's Island, Vineyard Sound.

The other members of the crew were taken off by the coast guard. The vessel is rapidly going to pieces and considerable of her wet cargo is being carried ashore by the sea. Captain George Gardner, of the coal barge Braddock went down with the vessel when she went on the rocks at Point Judith. Other members of the crew were rescued.

The other vessels wrecked were the schooner Francis Goodnow, of Boston, wrecked on McKinley's point, Cape Elizabeth, Maine; the coal barge Ephrata of Philadelphia, wrecked off Popham beach, Maine; the coal barge Taunton, of Fall River, wrecked at Point Judith, and the coal barge Canton, also of Fall River, wrecked off Point Judith. The crews of the latter vessels were taken off safely.

Many Ships Get Aid.

Several vessels summoned by S. O. S. calls of the Seaconnet, reached the scene only in time to view the floating wreckage. The City of Rome, Savannah bound, went miles off her course and forced draught to theassistance of the Seaconnet, but arrived too late, as did the revenue cutter Acushnet.

Because of her precarious position, there was considerable difficulty in taking off the crew of the Thelma Phoebe. Twenty-one members of her crew were finally landed after a breeches buoy had been rigged.

A breeches buoy also was employed in a spectacular rescue of the crew of the schooner Francis Goodnow. Soon after the crew was landed the masts of the vessel were carried away and it would have been impossible to use the breeches buoy.

GREEN LINE MEN TO ACCEPT RAISE

Green line motormen and conductors voted on Saturday as to whether they would accept a ten per cent advance in wages or not. The men wanted a fifteen per cent raise, and the ten per cent compromise was offered by the company. The vote has not as yet been made public, but street car men express the opinion that it will carry.

SUES FOR $1500

Roman Meyers has filed a suit against Mrs. Mary F. Jones asking $1500 damages. He alleges that he contracted to purchase a place on Washington avenue for $5,5[illegible] and that he paid $500 down. He offered $5000 later, and he alleges she demanded $1,000 more. This he refused to pay, and now sues for damages.

ARREST TRIO IN BROWNHELM RAID

Joe Golski of Brownhelm, Paul Clever of Cleveland, and Lawrence Nocum of Lorain to Face Liquor Charges

Sheriff Underhill with deputies Mathews, Bivins and Saulsbury, made a raid at the home of Joe Golski, on the Sunnyside road in Brownhelm township Saturday night and made three arrests on violations of the liquor laws

The men were Joe Golski, Brownhelm, Paul Clever, Cleveland and Lawrence Nocum, Lorain. Nocum obtained considerable prominence during the murder trial of Carl Stesner as Stesner claimed that Nocum was the man who broke up his home.

When the officers arrived they saw a light in the rear of a chicken coop and found the three men in a large shed busily at work operating a still. Golski was armed to the teeth with two large 38 caliber revolvers that were strapped to his side. He reached for one of them when the officers appeared but was quickly overpowered and handcuffed.

There was one large thirty gallon still and two smaller stills in the place, fourteen gallons of mash and about ten gallons of liquor. The trio were brought to jail and locked up.

The men will probably be arraigned before Judge A. R. Webber, some time today.

ARREST ELYRIAN FOR WRECKLESS DRIVING

LORAIN, April 30.—V. J. McCullough, Elyria, was arrested by the police yesterday charged with reckless driving. It is alleged he was intoxicated and ran his machine into a tree and over the sidewalk on Eighth street.

Andrew C. Kapco, who said he was from Elyria was also arrested with a bottle of liquor on his h[illegible]. Both men will be tried in municipal court.

10,000 HARD COAL MINERS ON STRIKE

PITTSTON, Pa., April 30.—More than 10,000 anthracite mine workers in this vicinity and 14 collieries are idle today as a result of an order of the general grievance committee of the Pennsylvania and Hillsdale Coal Company.

One of the prime reasons for the strike is that thirty-five employes at the Butler colliery refused to pay back dues in the union

LOCOMOTIVE FIRES GRASS

The fire department received a call to the vicinity of the General Phonograph Co. at noon today caused by a grass fire supposed to have started from sparks from a locomotive.

STARTS ACTION TO DISSOLVE WESTERN PINE ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The government today began legal action to dissolve the alleged lumber trust.

60 Corporations Sued

A suit in equity against the Western Pine Manufacturers' Association was filed on behalf of the government in the United States district court at St. Paul. Approximately sixty corporations and 86 individuals, officers in numerous lumber concerns were named as defendants.

The government asked the court to issue an immediate injunction against the corporations and individuals named, preventing them from continuing the practices, which the government charges, constitute a "combination and conspiracy in restraint of interstate trade and commerce in lumber."

Ends Long Probe

The suit today was instituted after many months of investigation and consideration by government officials, it was said at the department of justice. The many complaints from builders and business interests in the country over the high prices of building materials were a big factor in getting the federal authorities into action.

A. I. ROOT, 83, OF MEDINA IS DEAD

Founder of A. I. Root Co. and Noted Authority on Bee Culture, Had Enviable Career

MEDINA, O., April 30.—A. I. Root, founder of the A. I. Root Company, the largest dealers in bees in America, died at his home here today. He was 83 years old.

Root was the author of numerous works on bee culture and editor of a bee keepers magazine.

The deceased was born at Mazadore, Ohio, and educated in the normal school at Medina. He was married in 1861 to Susan Hall. He was president of the A. I. Root Co., and editor of a magazine called Bee Culture. Among the books he published were "The A. B. C. of Bee Culture;" "The A. B. C. of Strawberry and Potatoe Culture," and "What to Do and How to Be Happy While Doing It."

His acquaintance extended to all states in the union and to foreign countries. He had done more during his long life to popularize bee culture and disseminate knowledge of bees than any other man.

He had spent the winter in Florida, and had but recently returned to his home. Death resulted from a cold contracted on the way northward

COUNTY SCHOOL FIELD MEET MAY 18

Events For Both Boys and Girls to Be Held at Fair Grounds

Lorain county district schools are to hold their annual field meet at the fair grounds in this city on Friday, May 18. This year instead of having a day for the grades and a day for the high school pupils they will all be held at the same time. In addition to the regular program the girls of the 7th and 8th grades will give a scarf drill in front of the grandstand. The program for the athletic events is as follows:

Elementary Schools—Boys.

Running high jump, 13 years and over; 100 yard dash, 13 and over; 75 yard dash, under 13; 50 yard dash, under 11; running broad jump and over; one mile relay race, by eight boys, 13 and over; one mile bicycle race, free for all; half-mile, quarter mile, quarter mile; 100 yard dash; 75 yard dash; 50 yard dash; bicycle race, standing start, one mile.

Girls.

High jump; baseball throw; relay race, 200 yards by four girls; 75 yard dash; 50 yard dash.

In the relay races the boys run the mile course around the track and the girls run their course back and forth on a 50 yard shuttle course.

The individual points and awards will be as follows: First place, five points, gold medal; second place, three points, silver medal; third place, one point, bronze medal. A banner will be awarded the winning school. Both boys' and girls' events count in determining the winner.

Each high school is to compete as a unit, with not more than two candidates in each event. In the elementary grades not more than two contestants in each event. All elementary school contestants must be doing passing work.

PEACE OFFER IN IRELAND IS IGNORED

DUBLIN, April 30. — Eamonn Devalera's proclamation ordering republican irregulars to suspend hostilities at noon was ignored, according to reports received here.

As the manifesto was not addressed specifically to the free state and as it did not order republicans to surrender up their arms to the government, as demanded by the free state, it was passed over by the free state government.

According to reports received here disorders have taken place in various communities. In the meanwhile the free state troops continue their roundup of irregulars, arresting many of them

BONE DRY RULING AFFECTS FOREIGN AND U. S. VESSELS

3-60—BONE DRY—

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The right of the United States government to compel both American and foreign owned ships to be "bone dry" within American waters was upheld today by the United States Supreme Court in a sweeping decision which clarifies many of the complexities of the national prohibition laws.

Within 3-Mile Limit

At the same time, however, the highest court ruled that the government has not the power to extend the Volstead law either to American or foreign ships when those ships are outside American territorial waters.

The famous Daugherty opinion, extending the Volstead law to all American ships, wherever they may be, was thus partially upheld and partially thrown down.

Sutherland Dissents

The court held that American ships could be forced by the prohibition law to go dry in American waters, but the law did not force such ships to go dry in water over which the United States has no jurisdiction. When foreign or domestic ships are outside American waters they cannot be controlled by the Volstead law, the court said.

A dissenting opinion was delivered by Justice Sutherland.

May Lift Ban

Although the court's decision permits American ships to carry and sell liquor on the high seas, this will not affect, under existing regulations, the vessels operated or

6 OHIOANS ARE TRAFFIC VICTIMS

Many Others Are Injured Mostly on Crossings—Four Killed at Gates Mills

CLEVELAND, April 30.—Four persons are dead, ten others were injured, four perhaps fatally in automobile accidents in greater Cleveland Sunday. Two women were instantly killed when the auto in which they were riding was struck by a Gates Mills interurban yesterday afternoon. The driver, the husband of one of the women, died today in a Cleveland hospital. Earlier in the day a man was killed when his car ran against a telephone pole, wrecking it.

The dead in the Gates Mills accident are: Mr. and Mrs. Arden Traxell and Mrs. Mary Bissell. Robert Livingston was the other traffic victim.

DAYTON, April 30.—Miss Mildred Campbell of Troy is dead, and Herbert Sawyer, of New Carlisle, is in a hospital today following a crash between a southbound Baltimore and Ohio train and an automobile last night at Tippecanoe City.

COLUMBUS, April 30.—Instant death is the fate met today by John Kellough, 54, when a B & O train hit the auto he was driving at the Main Street crossing at Mount Sterling near here.

LORAIN MEN SEE GOVERNOR ON DISMISSAL OF SNELL

LORAIN, April 30.—Sunday a delegation of business men went to New Philadelphia to see Governor Donahey, and protest against the removal by Mayor Grall of service director L. A. Snell. Since returning none of them will talk and it is not know what they accomplished. Meanwhile Snell continues on the job, and the mayor has not named a successor, but it is understood he offered the position to one man who has declined.

HOLD UP, ROB TAXI DRIVER

Thomas R. Lorello, 12107 Imperial avenue, Cleveland, reported to the police at midnight that he had been held up by two men in Lakewood and compelled to drive his taxi towards Elyria. Eight miles east they robbed him of $30 put him out of the car and then went down a side road, presumably headed for Toledo. The alarm was sent to outside cities and towns to be on the look out for them.

TRAIN MANGLES

ZANESVILLE, April 30—Robert Lowery, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Murrell Lowery of Crooksville, wandered away from his home this morning and crawled under a freight car standing on the Zanesville and Western Railroad siding. A yard engine moved the car and the wheels ran over and terribly mangled the little child who died at noon.

AMERICAN LEGION TRIMS EAST SIDE CUBS SUNDAY 8-5

The American Legion won their opening home game of the season at Cascade park Sunday when they won from the East Side Cubs 8 to 5 in a loosely played game which was witnessed by a good sized crowd.

Bennet, for the Cubs pitched good ball but nine errors behind him was more than he could overcome. Root made a sensational catch in left for the Cubs and G. Smith made a sensational catch for Kershaw's Texas leaguer back of second in the eighth.

Brouse played well for the Legion, and Huebner ran bases well. Cook also pitched well for the Legion, and but for errors on both sides the score would have been much less.

OBERLIN LOSES TO RESERVE 7 TO 5

CLEVELAND, April 30.—John Coss, pitching the opening conference ball game for Reserve, crashed out a triple base clout with the winning runs on the pillows, and the Pioneers defeated Oberlin, 7 to 5, on the home field. Wagstaff, hurling for the visitors, was wild in a couple of innings, hitting two men and walking six batsmen during the fracas.

The red and white lads started the fireworks in the opening round by putting the first four batters across the plate. Oberlin retaliated in the third when Coss had a bad inning and marked up an eqal number of scores. In the sixth frame the visitors hung up another tally, which was their final endeavor. During the seventh Coach Cobb's lad went on the rampage when O'Donnell marked down a double after needs had drawn a pass. Hertzer was franked and Coss clouted the pill for a triple, clearing the pads.

Both Webber and Coss worked well in the box. Webber fanning nine men and Coss six.

SANFORD STARS FOR LORAIN IN TRACK TOURNEY

LORAIN, April 30.—The Lorain high school track team scored a 98 to 3 victory over the Alumni team in the first outdoor track meet of the season held here Saturday. Sanford of the high school team was the individual star, copping four firsts. Sanford got first in the relay, setting 27.2 seconds; 100 yard dash in 11 seconds; 220 yard dash in 25 2-5 seconds and the running broad jump, 19 feet, 11 inches.

Van Arman took firsts in the mile, doing it in 5 minutes 30 seconds and in the half mile, accomplished in 2 minutes, 23 seconds. Justice of the high school took first in the high jump on a five foot 2 inch record. Essig took first in the discus throw, hurling it 93 feet and also got first in the shot put with a 37 foot 10 inch record.

The Alumni showed up weak in comparisón with the high school team which is the strongest the school has had in five years.

ELYRIAN PLAYS WITH CLEVELAND ROSIES 9

Ralph Reynolds, second baseman and outfielder of the Elyria I. T. S. team got in the lineup of the Rosenbiums in the game with the Favorite Knits at Cleveland yesterday. The Rosenblums won 8 to 2. Reynolds playing second, was credited with no time at bat and had no chances in the field.

NAMES OF THREE VETS MISSING FROM BIG SHOW NEWS

The season will not be in full swing for many big league fans until three of the vets of the big show get back into harness. These three are George Sisler, wonder first baseman of the Browns; Charley Hollocher, shortstopping star of the Cubs, and Jake Daubert, first sacker of the Cincinnati Reds.

Sisler is recovering from an operation which was performed to correct a defect in his vision caused by a sinus infection. His return seems weeks away.

Hollocher was stricken with an infection of the gall bladder while in training. He will be out for weeks, it is feared.

Daubert fought a desperate battle with pneumonia after the spring training season opened, and is still far from well. All three of these men are important cogs in the machines to which they belong. And all are popular with the fans.

OBERLIN, April 30.—The interclass field meet was won by the freshmen Saturday when they made 241 points. The seniors made 189 1-2 points; juniors, 151, and the sophomores, 139 1-2. The points were given on a basis of ten places to count.

Tagging the Bases

A victory a day keeps the Sox away, say the Indian pitchers. George Uhle took a fall out of the saddened White Sox, 8 to 3, before a crowd of 35,000 at Comiskey Park, and the Gleason entry settled itself more comfortably in the cellar.

Pete Donohue shut the Cubs completely out while the Reds got to Aldridge in the third and sixth for a total of three runs.

Woodall's single in the ninth, scoring Fothergill, broke up a pitcher's battle between Danforth and Dauss, the Tigers winning over the Browns, 1 to 0.

A young man by the name of Bishop finally turned back the Giants in the ninth with the tying and winning runs on the bases, and the Phillies got the better of a 9 to 8 go-as-you-please. Bishop succeeded where such illustrious performers as Meadows, J. Barnes, Mitchell and $65,000 Jack Bentley failed.

The Braves outstepped the Dodgers to the wire by a matter of 2 to 1, errors behind young Dickerman influencing the outcome.

HENRIETTA

By Mrs. H. G. Portman

HENRIETTA, April 30.—Mrs. Lena Amstutz, who recently underwent a serious operation at Bethesda hospital, Cincinnati, is improving and expects to leave the hospital soon. She will spend some time there visiting her brother and their families before returning to her home here.

At the morning service of the Methodist church Sunday, Ruth Hostettler, Twyla Weidman, Richard Portman, Nelson Reusser and Harvey Born were examined. They have completed a course of religious instructions and were united with the church at that time. On Sunday, May 6th, communion services will be held. Rev. [illegible], D. D., from Cleveland, will assist Rev. [illegible].

Mr. [illegible] of [illegible], is visiting his sister, Mrs. B. F. [illegible] and family.

The eighth grade play at Birmingham was largely attended and much enjoyed. Friday evening the South Amherst high school gave the operetta, "Windmill of Holland," at Birmingham town hall to a large and appreciative audience.

It has been falsely reported that there has been several new cases of scarlet fever in Birmingham. There hsa been no new cases for some time and the health authorities believe there will be no more cases.

At a recent meetnig of the Calf club Harold Bauman was elected president. During the noon hour Thursday the Sewing club met at the home of their leader, Marian Dudley for their first lesson in sewing.

Many farmers of this community are beautifying their lawns by planting vines and shrubbery. Nothing adds so much to the attractiveness of the farm home as trees and shrubs. There is such a number of varieties to select from that one may have a succession of flowers all season. The small trees and ferns of the woods can readily be transplanted and with very little care will thrive and do well. By careful arrangement of the shrubs, ugly and bare places may be made beautiful.

LA GRANGE HIGH DEFEATED BY MEDINA

LAGRANGE, April 30. — LaGrange High lost the first home game of the season to Medina High, 9 to 3. The game was hotly contested in spite of the one-sided score as Medina did not sew up the game until the final innings.

Forbush pitched a splendid game, not walking a single man and allowing only five scattered hits up to the ninth inning when four consecutive hits including a double and a triple scored Medina's only earned runs of the game. Both first basemen played a star game, Buswell accepting 12 chances without a slip while Thomas accepted 7 chances in addition to driving out a double and a triple.

LaGrange was minus the services of three regulars in Dean, Wolcott and Syphers. With these men back the local lads will make every effort to wallop the boys from Valley City at LaGrange, Saturday, May 5.

MOULTON CANDIES TROUNCE LORAIN 9 AGAIN SUNDAY 16-0

The Moulton Candies administered a bad defeat to the St. Nicholas team from Lorain Sunday afternoon in the presence of a crowd of about five hundred people. From an opening of the season standpoint it was a very satisfactory one for the Moulton's. A good deal of credit for the 16 to 0 vistory was due to the extreme good pitching of Heath. The Lorain outfit only made three hits and he held them in leash all the way. Back of him was the errorless playing of the entire field. Hill went into the box in the eighth inning, and Mallek got a toe hold of one of his fast ones and clouted the ball for a home run. Lorain fielded loosely, and had no chance to make a single tally.

WELLINGTON HI WINS GAME FROM OBERLIN

WELLINGTON, April 30.—Wellington High school defeated Oberlin Business college on Saturday by the score of 7 to 6. This was the first game of the season played on the home field. A fair sized crowd witnessed the game, which was well played and interesting. Both teams were evenly matched. Wellington has good material for a first class team.

The next game here will be with Medina High school Friday, May 4.

WELLINGTON REPRESENTED IN STATE MUSIC CONTEST

WELLINGTON, April 30. — Dean McClellan, Lawrence Wells and Gertrude Whitbeck, members of Wellington High school, took the state examination of the State Music contest at Columbus last Saturday They represent Lorain county. No definite standing has been announced by the State board. However, the Wellington contestants are confident that they made a good rating.

WELLINGTON ROAD SOUTH WILL BE TOP-DRESESD

WELLINGTON, April 30.—The state is hauling material down the main road south where the road needs repairing south of the State Game farm. The road is to be top-dressed in keeping with the road between Wellington and the State Game farm.

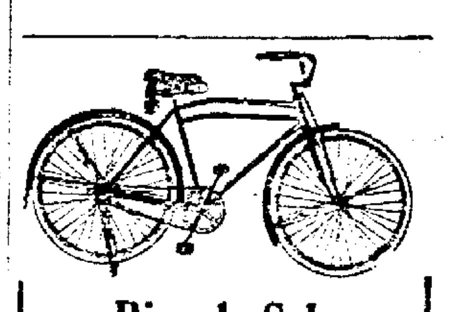

MAKE PARKING SPACES

WELLINGTON, April 30.—The streets and the square down town have been marked for auto parking purposes, which will make it more convenient for all. The cross walks at the square have also been marked off.

THE FINAL ACTION

The legislature has recessed until the latter part of December of next year. It is possible for the elected leaders of the two bodies to call the legislature into session again in the meantime whenever they feel that the necessities of the case warrant. This, of course, does not preclude the Governor from exercising the same power, but different than under the conditions of adjournment, the legislature would not be subject to the restrictions that it would be providing the Governor called them together for special session.

Only a few bills were taken up and passed over the Governor's veto. We believe that two or three of these measures that were passed over the veto were not helpful to the state. We believe there were other vetoed bills which should have been enacted. Certain men met prior to the convening of the legislature last Friday and agreed upon a few bills which should be enacted, and a determined effort was put forth to confine the legislature to the consideration of a few and to see that they did enact that few. As soon as their corps of leaders of House or Senate had gained votes enough for any one of these bills, they passed on to the next bill.

The opinions of the members of the legislature who felt that all of the measures that had been vetoed should be considered on their merits and either passed or rejected in the interest of the state, were not considered. The arrangements have been made for them and the ones who were carrying out the will of the unseen powers, carried it out to perfection.

There were some votes cast we know, of which the members were thoroughly ashamed, but they were cast under the whip of party organization, which when not being used for the interests of the common people, is a most vicious piece of machinery against the public good. The bill under the provisions of which the county commissioners can have their salaries increased on a percentage basis, we believe is indefensible from any angle of justice over which it might be considered. One or two other measures were little less so.

A. I. ROOT

The death of Mr. A. I. Root of Medina removes from our midst one of the strong and able characters of Ohio. Mr. Root was probably one of the most active men who ever lived in northern Ohio. He devoted himself to the culture of bees primarily and was an authority and probably the leading expert of the world upon everything pertaining to bees and their product.

While Mr. Root specialized on this line, at the same time he was not a one-idea man. He evidently in life had determined to know all about the one subject and then devote any leisure time he had to learning something about other subjects. He built up in Medina their leading industry, devoted to everything which had to do with bees, but at the same time Mr. Root found time to so thoroughly inform himself on other matters, that he wrote on the culture of potatoes, tomatoes, and strawberries, books each of which passed through several editions.

Mr. Root participated in every up-building civic activity. He was a man whose name and approval carried weight with every project with which he was identified. He was one of the two or three men in the early days of the Anti-Saloon League movement who aided the founder of that institution, Dr. H. H. Russell, financially, to the extent that he changed failure into success.

Mr. Root has left his impress upon his day and generation in every way for good. His sons who are carrying on the work are carrying it on in the spirit of their father, demonstrating that the same influences which Mr. Root executed outside his home, were shown to those who knew him best.

Hundreds if not thousands of people of Lorain County knew Mr. Root personally and loved him. The world has been benefited materially, [illegible] and spiritually, because of the life and labor of Mr. A. I. Root.

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAY'S NEWS

RICHARD M. TOBIN

Richard M. Tobin, the newly appointed American Minister to the Netherlands has started for his post, which has assumed large diplomatic importance in recent years because of its proximity to the Court of Justice at The Hague. The recent utterances by prominent Administration officials as to the advisability of a world peace court and the fact that The Hague Court has never ceased to function will cause the Government of the Netherlands, it is understood, to present the claims of that body for special consideration in case the United States adopts the world court plan.

Mr. Tobin is a Californian, and it is understood that he was backed for his new post by Senator Shortridge of that State and by a majority of the California delegation in the House of Representatives. During the war Mr. Tobin was commissioned in the navy and served as cable censor at San Francisco.

TIMELY VIEWS ON WORLD TOPICS

Proud of her progress and growing enlightenment though she may be when an average of intelligence is struck among her population it appears that this average is tending downward, and that Americans are in danger of becoming a race of "dumbbells."

These conclusions were voiced recently by Prof. Forrest A. Kingsbury, eminent psychologist of the University of Chicago.

In support of his statements Prof. Kingsbury cited data gained from tests made on soldiers during the war—the greatest single experiment of the kind ever undertaken, when 1,750,000 men were psychologically rated. These tests showed a remarkably small calibre brain among American men he said. He expressed the belief that another war at this time would bring even more surprising tests.

"The results of these tests represent an accurate sample of the adult male mind of America," he asserted, "and they show that only 12 per cent are of superior or very superior intelligence, while 24 per cent are very dull, feeble minded or on the border line."

Where Highbrows Lurk

Members of the superior class predominate among army officers, college trained persons, newspaper men, professional men, and others capable of public leadership, and in the other class are to be found many of the defectives and dependents and a disproportionate percentage of social offenders.

"The defective classes are multiplying more rapidly than those of higher levels," Prof. Kingsbury said. "They transmit their defects, either through heredity or bad social environment, to their offspring and thus become a large and increasing social menace."

"More than 50 per cent of the lowest grade men came from Poland, Russia, Italy and Austria, sources of our largest recent immigration, with colored troops standing equally low. The highest grades among foreign born come from England, Holland, Germany, Denmark, and Canada."

And Our Public Officials!

Prof. Kingsbury declared these figures disclose a crying need for higher intelligence standards, especially in a democracy, since democracy deals with ideas and principles, and general intelligence, as measured by tests, has to do with the capacity to dealing with ideas.

But "dumbness" is now confined to voters according to Prof. Kingsbury, who slammed public officialdom thus:

"If public officials were compelled to give positive evidence of superior mental capacity before their induction into office, our city hall, our state capitol and even the halls of congress would present different complexions."

A Diagnostician Startin' In.

"It's surprisin' what all we kin still eat after we git through with a diagnostician — celery, apples, charcoal tablets, fish, hickory nuts an' ever'thing," says Lem Meadows. Lem has his application in t' join th' band an' he don't want t' take up th' cornet at his time o' life unless he kin see it through—unless he has some assurance that he is good fer a few more years, an' we think he is right. Too many optimistic fellers 'way past forty or fifty jump int' new enterprises an' take up new professions with dry crusted livers, played out kidneys an' jerky hearts jest like they wuz goin' t' live ferever. They're thrifty enough t' have their cars inspected an' overhauled, their thermostats taken apart an' greased, their straw hats cleaned, an' their ole worn out shoes rehabilitated, but they keep right on eatin' red meat an' baker's bread, macaroni an' stewed t'maters. Nearly ever' day some buddy dies that we wuz talkin' to yesterday. Th' diagnostician told Lem Meadows that if he'd slow down on catsup, pepper (red an' black) spaghetty, p'taters, warm bread an' pie he might hang on an' be a celebrated cornetist, an' that a little steak now and then would not cut short his musical career. Any time after forty is th' real dangerous age fer both men an' women jest as th' second summer is th' critical age of an auto. A good honest diagnostician that don't need th' money kin take his X-ray machine, rubber mallet, lung tester, searchlight an' other tools an' find out all about a used human machine jest as easily as a skilled mechanic kin tell all about a used car. Th' human machine may be operated jest th' same as a hootch importer's auto. It kin endure a lot, but how long? Some folks 'll say, "Oh, I'd rather die than cut out rice." Others feel th' same about booze, smokin' and stewed t'maters, but diagnosticians very often find that we may eat any or all o' these things. We'd hate t' give up stewed t'maters, but we'd willin'ly attempt it if we [illegible] thereby live [illegible] or [illegible] years longer an' we might undertake it for a year an' a half. We think a feller owes it t' his family if not t' his creditors, t' take a full once over ev'ry year instead o' droppin' off leavin' a home [illegible] paid for an' a lot o' little children when his liver or kidneys or heart could have been [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] out of a Ford coupe. POEMS THAT LIVE

TO ONE WHO HAS BEEN LONG IN CITY PENT.

To one who has been long in city pent,
'Tis very sweet to look into the fair
And open face of heaven—to breathe a prayer
Full in the smile of the blue firmament.
Who is more happy, when, with heart's content,
Fatigued he sinks into some pleasant lair
Of wavy grass, and reads a debonair
And gentle tale of love and languishment?
Returning home at evening, with an ear
Catching the notes of Philomel,—an eye
Watching the sailing cloudlet's bright career,
He mourns that day so soon has glided by:
E'en like the passage of an angel's tear
That falls through the clear ether silently.

CLAIMS COUNTY ROAD COSTS $11,000 EXTRA

LORAIN, April 30.—Figures on file in the office of the state highway department at Columbus reveal that the paving of the 4.27 miles on the road now under construction between Lorain and Elyria has already cost taxpayers $11,312 more because the contract was awarded to the Highways Construction Company of Elyria, than it would have cost for exactly the the same job had it been let to the General Asphalt Paving Co. of Cleveland.

When the figures were obtained the paving work on the Lorain-Elyria road, which covers the distance from city limits to city limits, was less than two-thirds complete.

The entire contract was awarded at $92,220.77—and the job, less than two-thirds completed, the figures show, has already cost $115,-554.50.

Figures on a comparative basis and at the same rate the complete job will have cost the taxpayers more than $75,000 more than the original contract price of $92,220.-77.

Sam Horwich was seen at the court house this afternoon, and asked regarding the charges made. He stated that at present he had nothing to say, but might have something later.

FEAR MAY DAY RIOTS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, April 30.—Violent May day disorders are feared in Germany tomorrow. In the Ruhr German workers are planning to make an anti-French demonstration. In Bavaria both the fascisti and communists are planning parades in defiance of a government warning and a clash is feared.

NEW YORK TOT BRUTALLY MURDERED

NEW YORK, April 30.—"The work of a madman or fiend," declared Dr. Samuel E. Marten today after making an autopsy following the finding of the body of eight-year-old Josephine Bruno, of Brooklyn. The body was found in the cellar of her home.

The child had been attacked. Her skull had been battered against a chopping block. The body, face down, in the dirt of the cellar, lay sprawled with arms outstretched. The girl had been missing all night.

Police working on the case today asserted their belief that the murder had been committed by a man who knew the girl and who was able to entice her to the cellar because she was aware he was known to the family.

Several men were arrested this morning in connection with the girl's death, questioned and let go.

Every available detective in Brooklyn was working on the case.

It was the child's love for her father, Emilo Bruno, that led to her death. She had insisted upon waiting at the door for his return from work and while waiting, fell into the hands of the slayer.

The place of death was in a congested tenement district, inhabited largely by Italians.

INDICTED ATTORNEY WOULD LET SUNDAY SCHOOL BOYS DECIDE

LIMA, April 30.—Benjamin F. Welty, former congressman, does not believe a man under indictment for a grave offense is the proper person to teach a class in Sunday school.

For that reason, Welty has given the young men's class of the Market Street Presbyterian church, of which he is teacher, the privilege of deciding whether they want him to remain.

Welty was indicted last Tuesday in federal court in Toledo. He was charged with collecting $127.-64 for obtaining $27[illegible] on a soldier's claim for Franklin R. Strayer, now in Toledo state hospital. The law permits a charge of but $[illegible].

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, April 30.—"Mrs. Jessie Carson," who is under arrest here and who has virtually confessed that she is Clara Phillips, notorious "hammer murderess" of Los Angeles, declared today that she will fight extradition to the last ditch.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Three of the four big Martin bombing planes, which left San Diego, Calif., last Thursday for an experimental flight across the continent, landed at Bolling Field near here at 11:04 o'clock this morning.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—A bolshevist plot to overthrow the Angora government has been discovered by the Turkish gendarmerie and 18 Turkish communists have been arrested, it was announced today by police.

ARREST SIX IN RAID ON PARLOR CAR

CLEVELAND, April 30.—With six railroad employees under arrest here and in Columbus today, and arrests of scores of others expected shortly, federal and state prohibition agents claimed to have in their hands almost complete details of a $10,000,000 rum running conspiracy to bring imported Scotch and other whiskies into Ohio.

Deputy prohibition commissioner Frank S. Evans, who arrived from Columbus yesterday to take charge of the investigation, said that possibly one hundred persons would be linked up in the conspiracy.

First news of the plot came with the seizure here of 524 quarts of imported scotch whiskey late Saturday afternoon, as it was being unloaded from a "Florida special" at the East 55th Street Pennsylvania Station. The booze was contained in sixteen unmarked suitcases. A second seizure of 446 quarts was made in Columbus early yesterday morning. At the same time, two train porters, Richard Suter and Luther Boddie, were arrested.

Ernest Downey, station master; George Reed, baggage master; Jas. Hines and Harry Burns, porters, were under arrest here, while warrants had been issued for the apprehension of a brakeman and conductor on a Pennsylvania train.

According to Evans, a sea of booze estimated at 5000 quarts daily has been coming into Ohio from Havana. He said he believed the total would reach a million quarts, valued at $10 a quart.

Possible confiscation of railroad rolling stock used in transporting the liquor was under consideration, but definite action today had not been determined in this particular. Railroad officials were co-operating with federal and state officials in running down those guilty.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—Activities of prohibition enforcement agents against alleged liquor smugglers among railroad employes entering Ohio in through sleeping cars from Florida resorts have been extended to Cincinnati following arrests in Cleveland. "The Southland," arriving late last night on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, was delayed on the line's Ohio river bridge while state agents searched the train. No liquor was found.

OBERLIN HIGH TRACK TEAM TO BE VERY GOOD

OBERLIN, April 30.—With a squad of 40 reporting for practice, Coach Stiffler is rounding into shape a track team which he hopes will equal the good track team of 1922 in performance.

Track practice began two weeks ago on the oval cinder track at Dill field and each day's work is uncovering new possibilities in the athletes training on the college field.

Men who are making excellent showing in the track and field events are Dixon in the 100, 220 and the weights; Engle, member of last year's Lakewood varsity track team who is running the dashes and hurdles; Princehorn in the high and low hurdles; Knepper in the high jump, and Harry Williams and White in the weights.

Men who are looked upon as likely possibilities in the pole vault are Hatch, Young and Weiss. In this event the absence of Fitzgerald will be missed this year.

Johnson, Patton, Barnes and Hannah are qualifying in the distance runs.

More men than ever before are out for track this spring, Coach Stiffler reports. The squad numbers 4 men.

Oberlin's first meet comes on May 5 with Lorain at Lorain. A triangular meet with Elyria and Norwalk takes May 12 at Norwalk and May 19 comes the state meet at Columbus, either at West High school or at the Ohio State Stadium. On June 2 is the Little Big Seven which will be hled at Oberlin.

VERMILION MAN WORKS 1,708 HOURS ON LAMP

VERMILION, April 30.—Vermilion has an artistic wood carver, one who has patience in his work and who has at last placed the product of his skill on exhibition.

Ten years ago George Stumm took a block of cedar and began to work out an idea. Today that idea rests in a glass case upon a handsome pedestal in one of the Engleder department store show windows.

The carving is a lamp bearing four partially concealed light bulbs. It is very intricate in design and consists in part of fine fret work connected with chains and several globes or balls within cases of open lattice work.

It took Mr. Stumm 1,708 hours to do the work. Two blocks of cedar were used.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The supreme court of the United States today directed that under the revenue act of 1918 [illegible] arising from the exchange of stock in a [illegible] of stock in a new corporation, incident to reincorporation or reorganization, is not taxable gain.

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Arrival of several alleged I. W. W. oil workers from Taft to participate in strike activities along the Los Angeles water front was reet today with the arrest of six of the men, declared by the police to have been assisting I. W. W's already on the docks in spreading dissension among laborers.

DAUGHERTY IS BACK ON JOB

WASHINGTON, April 30.—After convalescing for two months in Florida and North Carolina, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, who has been a "very sick man" since last winter, returned to Washington today to again assume his dual role as head of the department of justice and political-adviser-in-chief of President Harding.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—Morris Roth, 37 years old, a state prohibition agent residing at 1554 Barton street, was arrested last night at the safe of John Weller, 30 East Court Street, on a charge of having discharged fire arms and one of intoxication.

Bone Dry Ruling

owned by the United States shipping board, including some of the finest liners in the world. These government ships are "dry" by presidential decree, orders being issued by President Harding following the Daugherty ruling.

The court's decision has reopened the question, however, and it is expected the president will be strongly urged to lift the ban against liquor on shipping board vessels after they get three miles away from the United States, as an inducement to passenger trade.

Carry "Sea Stores"

Foreign ships can be required by the United States to observe prohibition laws in American waters, the supreme court decided even though liquor is carried as sea stores in American waters, and not as cargo.

This power of the government includes the right to deny admission to American ports of foreign vessels carrying liquors for sale or dispensation to their passengers in American waters even though the liquors be kept under seal while in American waters and held to be necessary as sea stores, it was held by the court.

Justice Vandervanter, who delivered the opinion of the court, held that the general right to prohibit sale or dispensing of liquors on vessels foreign or domestic in American waters was carried in the prohibition amendments, while the Volstead act provides the penalties for enforcing the national law in American waters as well as on land.

Both Claim Victory

The net result of the supreme court opinion is that both wets and drys can claim victory—the drys because the court declared the government's authority to be absolute even over foreign ships within the three mile limit, the wets because the highest court decided the government could not force American privately owned ships to go dry once outside American waters.

Thus, according to interpretations placed on the court's decision, there is nothing to prevent privately owned American vessels going to Europe from stocking up their bars at some port of call, such as Halifax and depositing it there on the return journey so as not to enter American waters with liquor aboard.

The attempt by the United States to enforce prohibition laws on foreign passenger ships entering ports of the United States was resisted by the Cunard steamship Company and ten other foreign steamship lines which appealed to the U. S. supreme court.

Stops Ship "Stores"

In another action the right of the enforcement of the prohibition on the U. S. shipping board and privately owned American lines was presented to the court. The entire question of sale of liquor at sea to passengers on foreign steamship trading with the United States and on American steamship was raised in the cases.

Court action was precipitated by a decision of Attorney General Daugherty that the prohibition amendment and enforcement laws applied to all ships under the American flag and to foreign ships entering U. S. ports, and these laws prohibited American ships from carrying liquors and foreign ships from having liquor in ship stores when entering U. S. ports.

EVANGELISTS SAY FIND REFUTES MORMONISM

"The Little Church of God" at Palmyra, N. Y., and, left to right, the Rev. Melvyn M. Lawton, Charles E. Driver and Fay C. Martin.

The Rev. Melvyn M. Lawton, Philadelphia; Charles E. Driver, Jamison City, Pa., and Fay C. Martin, Palmyra, N. Y., traveling evangelists, claim to have discovered two plates on Mormon Hill, near Palmyra, which refute the teachings of Joseph Smith, founder of the Mormon church. The Mormon faith is based on the "Book of Mormon," supposed revelations of gold tablets which Smith claimed were given him by the Angel Moroni. The new discovery, the evangelists say, shows that the inscriptions on the tablet were written in modern Greek.

Dutch Henry's Bargain Store Changes Name to The Elyria Dress Goods Shoppe on Tenth Anniversary

Upon the tenth anniversary of the Dutch Henry's Bargain store at 315 East Broad street, it has been decided to change the name to the Elyria Dress Goods Shoppe. This store has been established at this location for about eight years and during that time they have developed a very satisfactory business.

There is a very interesting background regarding the foundation of this store, and many in the community especially among the newcomers have wondered just why this rather odd name was connected with the store. Old timers are conversant with the facts.

About thirty-eight years ago Mr. Henry Rothman came to this country from Hungary and settled in Cleveland. He started out his merchandising career, as was quite common in those days, selling goods from a wagon among the farmers and in the small towns along the lake district. Later on he expanded and drove through the counties in the neighborhood of Cleveland. He became favorably and popularly known throughout this district, as Dutch Henry. This name was given to him by Elyria's old City Sealer, Mr. Sump, many years ago.

About ten years ago Mr. Rothman decided to abandon his horse and wagon mode of trading and established his store in Elyria, and believing that there was something in a name, he continued to operate under the name, Dutch Henry's Bargain store. He died in 1915 and his daughter, Miss Ethel Rothman continued the store at its present location.

During the last year, the store has been enlarged and the stock of goods has been made more comprehensive, giving their customers a wider range of selections.

Miss Rothman said, "We believe that our new name, The Elyria Dress Goods Shoppe will identify the store as being an ideal place to purchase dress goods."

According to scientific estimates the water that goes over Niagara Falls represents a waste of energy at the rate of about $5,000,000 a week.

U. S. ENVOYS TO MEXICO MEET TO DISCUSS COURSE OF PROCEDURE

The first meeting of the commissioners named by the U. S. and Mexico to "enchange impressions" concerning the differences between the two countries, is expected to occur within the next few weeks. John Barton Payne and Charles B. Warren, the U. S. envoys named by Secretary Hughes, have already met to discuss the problems confronting them.

PAINT PARK BENCHES, START CITY FOUNTAIN

Summer is here. The fountain in the park has been started, the lawn resown, park benches painted green and in a few days the alligators and fish will be placed in the fountain.

HOUGH, NOVELIST, DIES

CHICAGO, April 30.—Emerson Hough, novelist and author for thirty years of popular works, died in a hospital here today. An operation was performed Saturday night in an effort to relieve him of a chronic intestinal malady which attacked him afresh last Thursday.

BURNS KILL WOMAN

DAYTON, April 30.—Mrs. Glenn Miller, 19, died early today from burns received yesterday when her dress was ignited at an open grate fire while she was bathing her three months old baby. The child escaped all harm.

CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE—MILD

So handy to have in the house for emergency use.

That's what mothers say of a jar of CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE.

They go for it and apply the clean, white, soothing ointment for the quick relief of coughs and pains that babies and small children contract so frequently.

CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE is good old MUSTEROLE in a milder form for use especially on infants and small children. Try it for colds in chest (it may prevent pneumonia), congestion, croup and common throat affections, headaches, swollen glands, bruises and soreness following falls and most local aches and pains.

It comes to you ready to apply. The price is so small—35 cents a jar—that no mother can afford to be without it. At all druggists.

Better than a mustard plaster

CHILDREN'S MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER MILD

TURKS AND FRENCH THREATEN TO FIGHT

PARIS, April 30.—Hostilities between the Turks and French were threatened today along the Syrian frontier. Both sides are concentrating troops in that zone.

Turkey demanded that the French evacuate Syria. The French refused, maintaining they were entitled by their league of nations mandate to hold and administer the region.

State Briefs

COLUMBUS, April 30.—John E. McCrehen, Columbus, president of the Ohio State Board of real estate men, has announced that he will call a meeting of the board to consider the advisability of a referendum on the Taft tax law, passed over Governor Donahey's veto by the legislature.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—A search that was aided by police of Covington and Newport, Ky., and Cincinnati was ended yesterday when Joseph Schneider, 12 years old, and his sister, Anna Marie, 8, were found near their home, 209 West Fifth street, Newport, whence they had been missing since Friday noon.

COLUMBUS, April 30.—The largest Ku Klux Klan meeting ever held in Ohio is scheduled to be staged at the Columbus driving park Friday evening, May 4, it has become known. Plans for the occasion have been completed, it is said.

NEWARK, April 30.—After a rest of four weeks, the fire bug is evidently at work here again. Five fires in rubbish boxes in obscure places in the rear of stores in the business district here have occurred since Saturday night.

Unique among the cities of America is Blythe, Calif. The place has a population of 1,600 but no citizens named Smith or Jones.

News Notes From Movieland

First National is determined to sign up all the pretty girls who show talent it seems. They have just placed three actresses of promise under long time contract. They are Andree Lafayette, the French actress who is to play Trilby and whose picture I have shown you so often, Sylvia Breamer, and Virginia Brown Faire.

Miss Breamer, who is completing her portrayal of the girl in Edwin Carewe's production of "The Girl of the Golden West," began her stage career in England and Australia, after which she came to this country and was seen in a number of Broadway plays before engaging in picture work. It was her work in "The Girl of the Golden West" which decided First National to give her a long time contract.

Virginia Brown Faire, who has also been placed under contract for a term of years, is only nineteen years old. She is a Brooklyn girl who came into prominence through winning a film contest before she completed her high school course. After preliminary training in minor roles, she was advanced to leads, her most ambitious part to date having been in Richard Walton Tully's production of "Omar, the Tentmaker."

GOSSIPY BITS

Viola Dana, her sister, Edna Flugrath, and the latter's husband, Harold Shaw, who is to direct Viola in "Rouged Lips," by Rita Weiman, have been motoring for a vacation.

William Desmond has begun his first feature, "McGuire of the Big Snows," under his new U contract. Yes, you guessed it. He's a Northwest Mounted Cop.

Jackie Coogan has changed his mind. When he grows up he wants to be an electrician. He attributes his new ambition to his friendship with the Klieg light operators on his "Daddy" set. He used to want to be a cameraman.

The rarest postage stamp in the world is the one-cent British Guiana, 1856, which was recently sold to an American collector for $38,000.

FAUVER HOME BURGLARIZED

The home of L. B. Fauver, 423 Washington avenue, was entered by burglars Saturday night, and the lower part of the house was ransacked. Entrance was gained through a rear window.

They secured $11 in cash, a pearl and sapphire bar pin, a velvet hand bag, and a boy's overcoat. No clue has yet been obtained.

Theatres

DREAMLAND—Tom Mix in the great photo play "Arabia." This is one of the best pictures of this versatile artist, and is making a hit. In addition there is a comedy that is hard to beat.

GRAND—"Adam's Rib," one of the best photo plays on the screen today. Newspaper reviews of this picture all give their endorsement, and it is now being shown in all the leading theatres of the country. The picture has been elaborately staged as all Paramount pictures are and the all star cast was especially chosen for the part that they play. It is well worth seeing.

AMERICAN—"Till We Meet Again." The story of a girl who was wrongfully confined in an asylum by her guardian, makes her escape, and [illegible] of crooks [illegible] learns what they are, and [illegible] home of a friend, that the crooks later try to rob. She is the means of saving their property, and one of the crooks who [illegible] with her [illegible] to call off his fellows.

COLONIAL—Ramon Navarro and Alice Terry in "Where the Pavement Ends." The picture has made a distinct hit, and [illegible] the approval of all who have seen it. There is a fine love story running through it, and there is enough excitement [illegible] the proper amount of [illegible] addition there is a good comedy.

SUTTER AUTO STOLEN

Saturday night a Ford automobile belonging to Joe Sutter, R. F. D. 3, was stolen from in front of Days music store on Broad street. The police were notified and sent out notices to surrounding towns.

CINCINNATI, April 30.—A $25,000 swindle based on the ancient "first past the post" system is alleged by police here to have been worked in a Detroit pool room on Samuel Deckelbaum, 1105 Hopkins street, Cleveland, wealthy clothing manufacturer.

What will a driving rain do to your porch?

WATER will ruin the finish on most porch furniture. For moisture turns ordinary varnish white, and destroys its protecting surface.

If you value the appearance of your furniture, floors and woodwork—if you want to give them the lasting protection they need, let us supply you with Pitcairn Waterspar Varnish. It never turns white. Its rich, fadeless lustre endures. It can't be harmed by driven-in rain or snow, leaky radiators or even scalding liquids. Free flowing—spreads far. Easy to apply.

We have also Pitcairn Waterspar Colored Varnish and Enamel in eighteen attractive colors, as well as paints, varnishes and enamels for any work you have to do. Tell us about the job and we'll provide you with the proper paint. See us to-day.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION HELD AT HARRIS HOME

AMHERST, April 30.—A double celebration was held at the home of Mrs. C. M. Harris, yesterday in honor of birthday anniversary of Mrs. John F. Mosely and C. M. Harris. The dining room was elaborately decorated for the occasion in yellow and pink crepe paper, a beautiful boquet of yellow daffodils and white carnations adorned the center of the table. Potted plants were also in evidence throughout. Thirteen guests participated in the sumptuous chicken dinner, place cards were used for the location of each guest. Favors of pink and yellow paper baskets with candies made a very pretty arrangement. A large birthday cake containing the names of the honored ones, Bess and Cy was engraved on the top of the cake. Both parties received many gifts in honor of the event. Those attending were Rev. F. E. Eastman, Frank Ray, Lucy Horn, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harris and son Douglas of Amherst, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and daughter Helen and Louise of Wooster, Mr. and Mrs. John Mosely and son Harris of Cleveland. The day was pleasantly spent in taking kodak pictures and music and a fine time was had by all present.

HONOR SOCIETY FEASTS

AMHERST, April 30.—The Honor Society of the High school gave a party at the School house Saturday night. The dining room was prettily decorated for the occasion, the pink, green and white color scheme being used. Paper flowers were arranged in a pretty manner. Japanese parosols were placed over the lights. Refreshments were served, place cards and very pretty favors were used at each plate. Games were enjoyed by all who attended.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICES FOR 8 NURSE GRADUATES

The baccalaureate sermon for the graduating nurses of Elyria Memorial Hospital was delivered last evening at St. Andrew's church by the pastor, Rev. E. B. Redhead. There are eight nurses in the class, the graduation to take place on Thursday evening, May 3rd, at the First Congregational church. The address of the evening will be given by Theodore Robinson, who is connected with the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Rev. Redhead took for his text, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." Ecclesiastes IX. 10. The speaker said in part: "Every person is brought into this world for a purpose and that purpose is work. He who finds his work or his vocation, has found happiness and success, if he follows the principle set forth in the text, 'Whatsoever thy hand finds to do, do it with thy might.' The nursing vocation is one of the oldest and most honorable of callings, also one of the most commendable, because it offers almost unlimited opportunity for service, for usefulness and for helpfulness. The cry of distress was ever being sounded in the ears of Jesus of Nazareth and he gave help. Today the cry of distress from sick and sorrowful humanity is everywhere heard and the nurse almost above all others has opportunity to give relief and comfort.

"But in order to serve in any vocation to the best of one's ability, one must be strengthened and supported by the Christian religion and this is not a mere sentiment or holy desire, it is the consciousness of the presence of God and our responsibility to Him.—it is the desire to put Him first and do all to His glory. Among those who have attained a high degree of success, a very large majority tell us religion was most helpful and necessary to them. This is testimony of Lincoln, Pasteur, Edith Cavell.

"To do everything with all thy might means a willingness to sacrifice self. Self sacrifice is one of the strongest and most winsome forces known to man. It was the secret of the success of Jesus of Nazareth. Everyone admires this spirit. We are not required to sacrifice our lives, but we are expected to sacrifice wishes, desires, ease, and comfort, so that others may be happier and stronger and better.

"Again to do everything with all thy might means that all duties must be done thoroughly. Too many in all vocations today are inclined to do their work carelessly, thoughtlessly and slovenly; they want to do it, not the best way, but the easiest and quickest. Those who build strength into character and true worth into their reputations will do their work whatever it is, the very best they know how. They will not say how much must I do. Those who are willing to do even more than is expected are the ones who endear themselves to their employers and prove that they are worthy of every confidence and equal to heavy responsibility.

"Lastly doing everything with all thy might means that all duties must be done cheerfully. Many go about their work with a sad and sorrowful countenance, they are morose and dispirited. Such people contribute to the darkness of life. Rather should the heart be filled with good cheer and then one radiates sunshine. 'Give, Oh' give me the man who sings at his work,' said Emerson and the philosopher of old said. 'A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.'

"When Livingston was sent out into the world, he said he did not care when he went or where. All he wanted was to go forward. These nurses are going forward into the world of usefulness and helfulness. Onward and upward is their aim. The revered teacher of old wanted Onward and upward is their aim, when he said 'Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might.'"

Meetings

The trustees of the Old Ladies' Home will meet on Tuesday morning, May 1st, at ten o'clock at the home.

At the meeting of the Lorain County Bee Keepers' Association, to be held at eight o'clock this evening in the local council chamber, an address will be given by E. C. Cotton, former entomologist.

MISS WILMA JOHNSTON HONORED AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Mary Gray entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Saturday afternoon, at her home on East River street, in honor of Miss Wilma Johnston, whose marriage to Charles A. Keller of LaGrange, will be an event of the near future.

The afternoon was spent with music and playing games, Mrs. Olivia Huston and Miss Gladys Nichols securing prizes. Delicious refreshments were served, covers being laid for twelve. The table appointments and decorations were carried out in a color scheme of pink and white.

Miss Johnston was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Eggs Baked in Cream — Place each egg in individual ramekins. Season and cover with two tablespoons cream. Set in pan of water and bake until egg is set. When serving these for luncheon cheese sprinkled over top is very good.

Eggs Nested in Rice—Cook one cup rice in boiling salted water, drain, pour over one quart hot water and dry in oven. Pile on platter and make indentations for halves of hard cooked eggs. Pour tomato sauce over all and serve. A can of tomato soup may be used.

Apricot Bavarian Cream — one-half cup cold water, one and one-half cup apricot pulp, two tablespoons gelatin, one-half cup sugar, whip from two cups cream. Soak gelatin in cold water. Heat strained apricots, add sugar and soaked gelatin. Chill in pan of cold water, stirring constantly. When it begins to thicken fold in whipped cream mold, and chill.

SUGGESTIONS

To dissolve Yeast—A very good way to take yeast is to dissolve it in an ordinary egg nog. Beat the yeast thoroughly with the egg before adding sugar, milk and flavoring. It will be found that all the disagreeable taste is eliminated, in fact, children will drink it without suspecting the presence of the yeast.

Dyeing Curtains—When dyeing curtains run a few threads through the material before putting into the dye pot. They can be drawn out and saved for darning the curtains and you have the exact shade of thread as curtains.

For Baking Day—A labor and time saver for the housewife on baking day is to use a steel fork three or four tined to mix the lard into the flour for pie crust, also to work the butter and sugar together for cake.

Cottage Cheese—Pour sour milk into large pan; add to this the same quantity of boiling water. Put into bag or sieve and drain. When dry place in dish and add cream and desired seasonings.

Save Fasteners—Save the cards from which the fasteners have been used. Snap the fasteners from discarded gowns on the card. You see at a glance what you have and will not have to finger over the contents of a box to find what you want.

Tooth Brushes—It is well to have two tooth brushes, so that one will always be clean and dry. The bristles must be kept stiff to do their best work and this can be done by sprinkling salt on them while wet. When you use it, rinse the salt out and you will find the bristles stiff and pleasant to the taste.

The vinegar left from pickled beets is sometimes used in salad dressing, instead of regular vinegar. It adds a pretty color and a delightful flavor and make for variety.

Dinner Stories

An Oklahoma editor tells of an old Indian who came into his office to pay for his paper. The editor took the money; then the Indian wanted a receipt. The editor tried to talk him out of it. Mr. Indian insisted. After making it out, the editor wanted to know why he was so persistent about wanting a receipt. The Indian said. "Me die some time. Go to big gate and St. Peter ask if I been good Indian. I say yes. He say, 'Did you pay editor for paper?' I say yes. He say, 'Where is receipt?' I no have it. I have to run all over hell to find you and get receipt"—Cowden (Ill.) Reflector.

The audience was very unkind at the speaker's temperance lecture and kept interrupting. At last he hired an ex-prize fighter to keep order. That night he contrasted the content of home life with the squalor of drunkenness.

"What is it we want when we return home from our daily toil?" he asked. "What do we want to ease our burden, to gladden our hearts, to bring smiles to our faces and joyous songs to our lips?"

He paused for effect, and in silence the voice of the keeper of the peace could be heard:

"Mind," he said, "the first guy that says beer, out he goes with a bang."—North Carolina Boll Weevil.

"One of the stories which struck me as being about the funniest recently going around," says Dr.

Frank Crane, "was the one with which you are doubtless familiar, about the mule the purchaser brought back to the seller because he said it was blind. And the seller said, 'He ain't blind. He just don't give a damn.'"

Senator Charles A. Culberson, Democrat, of Texas, tells this story:

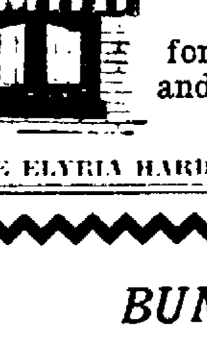

"In my race for the nomination for governor of Texas against Sam W. Lanham and John H. Regan the prohibition issue was beginning to loom up. While addressing a crowd at Sherman one day some fellow in front of me asked if I could take a drink. 'Is that an invitation or an inquiry?' I asked, and the fellow never answered. That settled the liquor question in that campaign—in 1894—and for all time to come for me. I voted against the resolution to submit the eighteenth amendment and the District of Columbia dry bill."

According to a missionary lately returned from the Sandwich Islands, the native word for "Hello" is "Kalakaohoikauhaihoihaukoi." It certainly seems to offer a good way of passing the time while waiting for a telephone call.—Punch.

Fragrances of Eternal Spring—

WHAT better thought for Spring than fragrance?—a divine gift! Spring—the smell of the warming earth, the odor of flowers, the scent of the woods and the aroma of your neighbor's sizzling bacon and eggs coming in through the open window of your bedroom. It is the season of the year when most of our pleasurable preceptions come through the sense of smell. All of which leads to the thought of the captive fragrance of fruit, and wood, and flowers—perfume. And at this season with new costumes and delights comes multiplied use of perfumes by the fairer sex. This use belongs to them as of right and through centuries of custom, whether to make herself more attractive to the opposite sex or for the expression of her own individuality and the gratification of her own senses. And this has come down from the earliest dawn of civilization when the desert women of Arabia used to sit in the smoke of sweet smelling spices and emerge aromatic and alluring. It is out of the Latin per and fumare—through the smoke—we get our word "perfume."

THE SPRING GIRL OF 1840

Drawn by John Rae

Reproduction by Courtesy of Colgate & Co.

An Everlasting Appeal to the Luxury-Loving

FROM this, through all the ages, the odors of spring flowers, the concentrated essences of aromatic herbs and spices, have so appealed to the lovers of luxury, whether queens or courtiers, that one of the world's great industries has been founded—the imprisonment of the fragrances of eternal spring, to be released at the bidding of those whose senses may be gratified through the sense of smell.

Perfume used in "Alabama"

Many years ago when Augustus Thomas' play "Alabama" was first produced there was wafted through the audience on the rising of the curtain the scent of magnolia in order to attune the senses of the spectators to the southland in which the action of the play took place. Nor can one smell the odor of Cashmere Bouquet—now, through many generations established as an odor by itself—without seeing in his mind's eye an old-fashioned garden with the crinoline sweetheart of our grandfather's day tripping through the gate, her ringlets peeping from beneath a poke bonnet as she comes with her shy and dainty greeting.

The tomb of Tut-ankh-amen has just given up evidence of the perfumery secrets practised for the Egyptian kings 3500 years ago, and the history of the world is made redolent with the odors of the sweet scented spices of Arabia, the frankincense and myrrh of the Bible, the blossoms of Far Cathay, down to the present when we associate perfumery largely with France, although all parts of the world give up their fragrancies to be concentrated and blended for milady's dressing table. Bulgaria and Turkey give us the Attar of Roses; Algeria the Rose Geranium; America the peppermint and England the lavender so closely associated with old lace; the East Indies afford patchouli and the Orient gives us ylang-ylang.

Our own country has not as yet taken a prominent place in the production of these essences, although the climate of California is admirably adapted to flower cultivation on the necessary scale. Experiments have been so successful, however, as to lead to the belief that one day the Golden Gate State will rival the Orient and the older countries of Europe in yielding these fragrances to industry. In spite of which lack for the present, American perfumes have taken their place and held it firmly in spite of the age-old prejudice in favor of the foreign product. For it is in the blending of the essences, in the bouquet formed by their combination, that the great art lies and in this Americans have come to excel. The extracts—which are the simplest of notes in the odor organ—are necessarily imported. It is from these that the odor composers have wrought their symphonies, their fugues, their concertos and their ballades, creating by the blend the various bouquets which have found their place because each expresses an individuality and a feeling which the simple odor largely lacks.

Thus Florient—an American perfume—in itself suggests that the odor is created from Flowers of the Orient, not one but many, the quintessence of the perfumer's art. Cha Ming also at once suggests the Orient, since its syllables are perfectly good Chinese, and likewise quite excellent in our native tongue. The essences are from the Far Cathay of romance and history, but the blending is purely American.

The actual process of luring the odor from the flowers and making it useable in the perfumer's art goes back to a principle with which every housewife is familiar. She knows how readily butter in her ice-box will absorb the odors of vegetables and meats kept in the same receptacle. It is this principle that is employed to coax the fragrances to leave their floral homes and become capable of transference to permanent form. The macerated blossoms from which the odorless parts have been removed are mixed slowly in large vats of melted beef or pork suet, more and more being added until the fat has acquired an odor of the required strength. The fat is then washed in alcohol and the odor which could be lured out only by the fat now shows a wonderful affinity for the alcohol and the essence or attar is created. A slightly different method is sometimes used, but the principle is the same, namely, the use of fat to lure the odor from the flower and the employment of alcohol to take it from the fat.

Flowers Used by the Ton

In one large perfumerie in France there were used in one year 2,400 tons of roses, 1,750 tons of orange blossoms, 134 tons of violets, 280 tons of jasmine, 70 tons of tuberoses and 15 tons of jonquils. But the resultant product—essence or attar—is not so enormous. It takes eleven tons of roses—about three million blossoms—to make one pound of Attar of Roses.

It is after these essences and attars have been obtained that the real art of the perfumer begins and in the blending of these simple odors, which can be transported over great distances, no country and no clime has a monopoly. It is in this blending or composing, the making of bouquets and symphonies, that America has come to take its place.

An interesting experiment was performed some time ago by Colgate & Co., to determine by actual test to what extent the women users of perfumes were influenced by the use of foreign names or labels. One hundred and three women, selected from business walks of life, the stage, the universities and from editorial pursuits, were asked to name their preferences. Sixty-one of these favored foreign blends. A committee of fair-minded men then chose six perfumes, three of which were foreign and three of which were American. They were poured into bottles exactly alike and numbered one to six, no one but the judges then knowing which perfumes the numbers identified. Perfumers' test strips were then likewise numbered from one to six and were perfumed from the bottles bearing the respective numbers. These women were then asked to express their preferences from their sense of smell alone, and on this test eighty chose the American perfumes.

ERLE CHAMBERS

Two women now sit in the Arkansas state legislature. Miss Erle M. Chambers of Little Rock, was the candidate of the Pulaski County League of Women Voters. Miss Chambers is a law school graduate and has been a probation officer teacher, and for five years was executive secretary of the Arkansas Tuberculosis Association. She was the first woman in Arkansas to pass the bar examination in that state. It is reported that not a cent was spent for advertising during her campaign. Miss Chambers ran on the Democratic ticket.

"FIRST" OF YESTERDAY

Probably the first woman to hold an important post in the American diplomatic service was Miss Jessie Coggeshall, daughter of William T. Coggeshall, who served as United States Minister to Equador in the late '60s. Miss Coggeshall accompanied her father to Quito as secretary of legation and had full charge of the office four months after his death.

OUR WOMEN LAWMAKERS

Georgia has two women in the state legislature, both Democrats, of course Miss Bessie Kempton is one of the first newspaper women to gain a seat in a state lawmaking body She is just twenty-nine, pretty and belongs to "the younger set" of women lawmakers If Georgia keeps on choosing such attractive women legislators the state will be noted for another brand of peaches from that which makes it famous now. Considering the attitude of most of the southern states toward woman suffrage, Georgia has done nobly to elect two at the first opportunity.

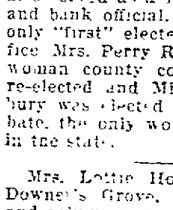

BESSIE KEMPTON

Mrs. Dora B. Pinkham of Fort Kent, Maine, is the first woman ever elected to the Maine house. She was elected on the Republican ticket and the fact that her district is normally Democratic made her election all the more remarkable She is a young woman, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke, with an M A. from Ittical science During the war Mrs. Pinkham was a scientific investigator and Columbia in po- also served as a Red Cross worker and bank official. She was not the only "first" elected to political office Mrs. Perry Rich, Maine's first woman county commissioner, was re-elected and Miss Emily Bradbury was elected register of probate, the only woman in that post in the state.

MRS. D. PINKHAM

Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downer's Grove, Ill., is the first and only woman ever elected to the Illinois state legislature. Mrs O'Neill has already let it be known that she will ignore the general sentiment in favor of amending the eighteenth mendment. MRS. LACHMAIER GAINS 20 LBS. ON TANLAC

Tanlac has completely relieved me of a case of stomach trouble which I thought was hopeless," declared Mrs. Louis Lachmaier, 1514 Akron St, Massillon, Ohio.

"My condition had been serious for a long time I was forced to live entirely off of milk, and woe unto me if I ventured to eat any solid food. It simply would not digest, and would bring on terrible pain and violent spells of palpitation My nerves drove me almost frantic, and for nights at a time I could hardly sleep a wink. I was simply miserable and almost a shadow of my former self.

"The Tanlac treatment brought almost immediate improvement, and in a few weeks I was off my milk diet and eating every kind of food on the market. I have taken five bottles now and have more than recovered all I lost during my long illness. I am the picture of health and strength, and my gratitude to Tanlac is simply boundless."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.—Adv.
